

Recent Back-to-School Health Fair

On August 5th, SpeakingOut participated in a wonderful event in Knoxville, TN....

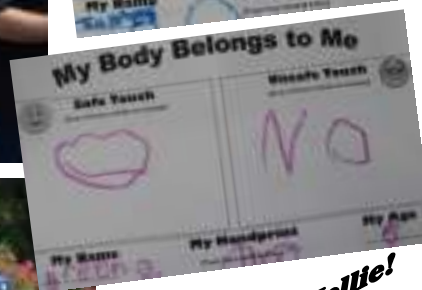

Western Heights Dental's 1st Back-to-School Healthy Kids Rock!

In addition to dental health, the sexual abuse of innocent children is yet another health issue that needs immediate attention & action from us as adults in order to prevent as many children as possible from being violated.

One Parent/Child at a time... Every one Child matters... What if that one Child were your Child?

At SpeakingOut, we utilized this opportunity to raise awareness on the crime of Child Sexual Abuse with Parents & Children of all ages. At our table alone, we had almost 400 children come by with their Parents. We were able to hand out "What Every Parent Should Know" brochures to the Parents, as well as encourage the children to fill out a Kid's Activity Sheet called "My Body Belongs to Me". We also offered Bean Bag Toss for the kids!

1st Step to Prevention... Education & Awareness. We spent the day encouraging Parents to get educated on this crime, go home & sit down with their children to talk about Child Sexual Abuse in-depth... for children's sake!

Thank You Nellie!
I could not have handled that crowd
without you.
