SpeakingOut News

November 2009

Rally against Child Sexual Assault

Held on November 14th

Washington D.C.

Lincoln Memorial Park/Reflecting Pool

(Event was hosted by FACSA)

A number of organizations & individuals joined together from across the nation to rally against Child Sexual Abuse in America in a very public forum. Lincoln Memorial Park is a place where tourists roam about all throughout the day. As the Rally commenced, some of the passersby were drawn in. There were those who stopped & listened for only a few minutes, others for long periods of time and then there were those who interacted with us with comments and questions. The Event was a Success!

This was the 1st Annual FACSA Rally & collectively we were able to accomplish a very important task... Raising Awareness on the crime of Child Sexual Abuse in America, as well as addressing issues that surround this crime.

SpeakingOut is looking forward to having the opportunity to participate again next year. Thank You FACSA for inviting us to be a part of this very important & much-needed Rally. On behalf of SpeakingOut, thank you to each & every person who contributed to our cause specifically for this mission. Because of you, SpeakingOut was able to be there to Rally for our children. We Appreciate You, along with Everyone Else who has ever Contributed to our Cause!
